

PhD Student Opportunity

Project: to study the taphonomy and depositional environments of the Late Cretaceous Western Interior Seaway as a MITACS Fellow with the University of Manitoba and the Canadian Fossil Discovery Centre.

Supervisors:

- Dr. Kirstin Brink, University of Manitoba
- Dr. Ricardo Silva, University of Manitoba
- Adolfo Cuetara, Canadian Fossil Discovery Centre

The successful candidate has:

- MSc with a background in stratigraphy, geochemistry, and/or paleontology
 - Experience working with museum collections
 - Experience working in the field
 - Experience working with the general public
 - Eligible for a MITACS Accelerate Fellowship
- <https://www.mitacs.ca/en/programs/accelerate>

To apply: please send a CV, transcript, and cover letter outlining your interest by December 9, 2022 to:
kirstin.brink@umanitoba.ca

